Property
Highlights:

L'Hirondelle Guest House combines a prime beachfront location with flexible, apartment-style accommodation, making it a strong option for independent travellers and longer stays.

Positioned directly opposite Anse Volbert — one of Praslin's most sought-after beaches — the property offers easy access to swimming, water sports and excursions, while its central Côte d'Or setting places guests within walking distance of restaurants, shops, dive centres and transport links, enhancing overall convenience.

The guesthouse features a collection of modern, spacious one-bedroom apartments and a two-bedroom ocean-view loft, all equipped with kitchenettes, private verandas and contemporary amenities, supporting self-catering flexibility and extended stays. With its combination of location, practicality and personalised, family-run service, L'Hirondelle is particularly well suited for tour operators packaging mid-range Seychelles itineraries focused on independence, accessibility and value.
