Property Highlights:

Eden's Holiday Villas combines self-catering comfort with a tranquil west coast location, making it an attractive option for travellers looking to experience a quieter side of Mahé while remaining within accessible driving distance of key attractions. Located in Port Glaud, the property is well positioned for exploring nearby highlights such as Port Launay Marine Park, Sauzier Waterfall, Morne Seychellois National Park (excellent hiking trails) and several west coast beaches known for snorkelling, sunsets and nature experiences.

The apartments offer fully equipped kitchenettes, air-conditioning and quiet outdoor areas, catering well to couples, solo travellers and longer-stay guests seeking flexibility and independence. Its peaceful residential environment, combined with practical amenities such as Wi-Fi and parking, enhances guest comfort while supporting a relaxed island experience away from busier tourism hubs. Eden's Holiday Villas is well suited for mid-range leisure itineraries and self-drive holiday programmes.
