Property Highlights:

Pineapple Villas Self Catering Apartments offers a well-balanced combination of privacy, flexibility and value, making it a strong option for independent travellers and extended stays on Mahé. The property features spacious, fully equipped apartments with kitchen facilities, separate living areas and private balconies or terraces, catering particularly well to couples, families and small groups seeking a home-style environment. Its peaceful residential setting provides a relaxed atmosphere, while still allowing convenient access to nearby beaches, local shops and essential services. Additional amenities such as Wi-Fi, air-conditioning and on-site parking support a comfortable and practical stay. With its focus on self-catering convenience, space and affordability, Pineapple Villas is well suited for mid-range Seychelles itineraries and clients prioritising independence and longer stays.

Aside from the beach at your doorstep, the south is known to have the most beautiful, serene beaches on Mahé, all close by for you to explore. The south also is home to many locally renowned artists. Visit their galleries and see all the Seychelles inspired artwork. For the nature lovers, there are several tropical gardens to walk through and admire the natural flora and fauna of the islands.
