Property
Highlights:

Village du Pecheur is distinguished by its prime beachfront location on Côte d'Or, placing guests just steps from one of Praslin's most popular beaches and within easy reach of island excursions, water sports and local amenities. The boutique hotel offers a limited number of elegantly appointed rooms and suites, creating an intimate atmosphere complemented by personalised service and authentic Seychellois hospitality.

Its Mediterranean-inspired design, ocean-facing restaurant and relaxed beachfront setting provide an appealing blend of character and comfort, while the property's central location makes it an ideal base for exploring attractions such as the Vallée de Mai UNESCO World Heritage Site, nearby islands including Curieuse and St. Pierre, and Praslin's famous beaches. Combining convenience, charm and a sought-after beachfront position, Village du Pecheur is particularly well suited to couples, honeymooners and discerning travellers seeking a boutique alternative to larger resorts.
